

British Values throughout our KS1 Curriculum

Science

Democracy	The Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect & Tolerance
Children are encouraged to collaborate in groups, take turns, and share resources. Children are supported in developing decision-making skills and taking responsibility for their actions. Additionally, children are encouraged to express their views and opinions while also listening to and following instructions from others during group activities.	In science, children are encouraged to use equipment properly and prioritise safety. Clear rules are established, and children are guided to consider the potential impact and consequences of not adhering to these rules.	Children are provided with opportunities to engage in debates and discuss various issues. They are encouraged to share their opinions and ideas, even if they differ from those of others. Children have opportunities to work independently, make their own choices, and carry out investigations in a safe and supportive environment.	Children work in groups, fostering teamwork and mutual respect for one another. Through discussions, they learn that people have diverse opinions and beliefs, which may differ from their own, and they are taught to respect these differences. Children also share and discuss their findings, showing respect for each other's work. This process encourages them to offer constructive support and advice to their peers, promoting a collaborative learning environment.