18th November 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

To continue fostering a love of reading within our school community, we would like to warmly invite you into school to read and share books with your child in their classroom. This special reading session will take place from 2:45pm to 3:30pm on Tuesday, 25th November.

Please enter and exit the school through your child's external classroom door.

If you have more than one child in school, we kindly ask that you visit each child in their own classroom, as this helps us maintain a safe and comfortable number of visitors in each space.

You are welcome to stay for the full session or for as long as you are able. If you wish to leave before the end of the school day at 3:30pm, please ensure that you sign your child out with their teacher before departing.

We look forward to welcoming you!

Kind regards,
Mrs Hardy
